THE AUGUST ELECTIONS.

Elections are to take place in August in several States, as follows:

Aug. 1st. Kentucky—Legislature only;
Indiana—Legislature and county officers;
Illinois—Gov, Legis, and county officers;
Mi-souri—Congress;
Alahama—Legislature;
Aug. 4th. N. Carolina—Governor and Legislature.

Five numbers of Congress will be chose by general ticker in Missouri, but their election will be elegal and vool, being contrary to the second section of the new Apportaneous Law of Congress, which presentes that all future elections of Members of Congress throughout the Union shall be made by small districts.
